

Dr. Roberto J. Walton

Ph.D., University of Buenos Aires (1974). Professor emeritus at the University of Buenos Aires, and senior researcher at the National Council for Scientific and Technical Research (CONICET). Director of the Centre for Philosophical Studies at the National Academy of Sciences in Buenos Aires.- Author of Husserl. Mundo, conciencia, temporalidad (Buenos Aires, 1993); El fenómeno y sus configuraciones (Buenos Aires, 1993); (with Angela Ales Bello) Introducción al pensamiento fenomenológico. Despliegues de la consigna de Husserl 'volver a las cosas mismas' (Buenos Aires, 2013); Intencionalidad y horizonticidad (Bogotá, 2015); and Horizonticidad e historicidad (Bogotá, 2019). Co-editor (with Zelyko Loparic) of Phenomenology 2005. Vol. II. Selected Essays from Latin America (Bucharest, 2007) and (with Shigeru Taguchi and Roberto Rubio) Perception, Affectivity, and Volition in Husserl's Phenomenology (Dordrecht, 2017).- Member of the advisory boards of Orbis Phaenomenologicus, Husserl Studies, Investigaciones fenomenológicas, Acta fenomenológica latinoamericana, Phainomenon, Studia Heideggeriana, Anuario filosófico, and Acta mexicana de fenomenología. Former editor of Escritos de Filosofía.- Member of the Círculo Latinoamericano de Fenomenología (CLAFEN), 2002 and former coordinator of the Circle in Argentina. Honorary member of the Sociedad Iberoamericana de Estudios Heideggerianos and Franco Volpi Prize awarded by the Society (2017).